1.	Statement of Principles
	The Equality Act replaced all previous equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, Disability Discrimination Act and Sex Discrimination Act. The Equality Act 2010 provides a single, consolidated source of discrimination law, covering all the types of discrimination that are unlawful. The Act requires all public organisations, including schools to comply with the Public Sector Equality Duty: The Public Sector Duty or General duty: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation ● Advance equality of opportunity between different groups ● Foster good relations between different groups. This policy describes how the school is meeting these statutory duties and is in line with national guidance. It includes information about how the school is complying with the Public Sector Equality Duty and also provides guidance to staff and outside visitors about our approach to promoting equality. The Equality Act also applies to schools in their role as employers and the way we comply with this. At Marden Bridge Middle School we pride ourselves in setting the highest academic standards for all of our students. We are an inclusive, caring, disciplined and happy school that provides a safe, secure and innovative environment for all who learn and work here. We are committed to developing the talents and expertise of each individual at Marden Bridge and this reflects in the success and achievements that our students make. It is our heart - felt belief that a nurturing environment, with appropriate levels of support and challenge, will help to make each one of our pupils the very best people they can be, both in the classroom and the wider community.
